

HUTCHISON'S BARGAIN STORE

There's Wisdom In Economy.

And there are different sorts of Economy; the economy which "saves at the expense" is the worst of all. The truest saving is to buy the best your pocket-book will afford at the lowest price for which it can be sold. We sell on such a close margin of profit that our customers feel confident that bottom has been struck. Hence the active, progressive look of things which some people wonder at. It's very simple, this honest shop-keeping when you know how, and the trading public will always pin their faith to an establishment of that kind.

Dress Goods Again.

Never in such a position to serve your every fancy as now. Whatever your dress goods thought may be here will you find it. As to the prices—well, they're right or we couldn't do the business. All Wool Novelties, Light Shades, Small Check and Boucle Patterns at 45c, 45c and 50c; the usual prices 65c to 75c. 5 pieces Silk Finish Henrietta in Blue, Black and Jet Black, at 50c. The regular dollar goods. Iridescent in new shades at 37½c; regular price 60c.

SEDUCTIVE SILKS.

Not a woman in the city but what will have a silk waist this spring and we would like to supply them. An entire new line of silks now in stock. They are pretty and new, and don't let the prices disturb you. A little money goes a long way in this silk matter. A lot of Jap Wash Silks in light and dark colors, striped and figured, at 10c a yard, only a limited quantity. Extra wide, better silks, at 35c, should be 65c. Some pretty effects in Green, Browns, Yellow and Reds, at 65c, 75c and 90c a yard. Match them, you can't, for less than 82c to $1.25.

Laundried Shirt Waists.

Going to be the biggest shirt waist season ever known. We've bought accordingly. There are many pleasant surprises awaiting you. Why not buy early and get first pick.

New Spring Capes.

We get the new things as fast as turned out. You don't need a pocket full of money to be properly caped here. Your interests are ours. Prices 98c, 1.25, 1.50, 2.00 to $7.50.

Clothing!

For Men, Boys and Children. This department is receiving additions every week, and we will make the lowest prices in the history of the clothing business. All goods guaranteed sound, strong and durable. Our prices are not approached by any house. HATS AND CAPS.—New styles arriving. Some special prices this week. Men's Shirts for working in at 20c, 25c, 35c to 45c—in good extra value in these goods come and see them.

It is impossible to enumerate the Bargains in all our 25 departments. Every Week, it would keep one writing all the time. You are invited to come and see the wonderful low prices we make. No other house can duplicate them.

Large Addition to our Queensware Stock this week, and the prices are lower than ever—Large purchases direct from the potteries, give us the lowest prices obtainable.

DON'T FORGET—That we have full stocks of Carpets, Window Shades, Wall Paper, Picture Frames, Lace Curtains, Mattings, Jap Portiers, Lamps, Trunks and Sewing Machines, at less prices than can be bought elsewhere.

Garden and Flower Seeds.

Tube Rose and Gladioli Bulbs for 1 cent each. Flower and Garden Seeds, 2 papers for 5 cents. Half Pint Package Beans and Peas for 8 cents. Quart Package Central Park Lawn Grass, for 15 cents. All Warranted Fresh and Pure.

RALSTON MODEL MEALS—Is a book written in honor of the recent movement throughout America in favor of Natural Health and Food. It will save its price in any family every week by telling how to prepare healthy food, and will save sickness and the expense and suffering that follows. We sell the Book and the Health Food. The best and the heartiest food on earth. We are up to date in goods, in methods and prices. Call and see our establishment. The most progressive in the city.

BALFOUR

Introduces His New Irish Land Bill in the Commons.

He Characterizes It More Like a Collection of Small Bills

Than a Measure to Carry Out a Basic Proposal—The Chief Secretary Claims the Bill is Fair and Beneficial to Both Landlord and Tenant.

LONDON, April 14.—Mr. Gerald Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, introduced the Irish land bill. In doing so he referred to its complex and intricate character and said it was more like a collection of small bills than a comprehensive measure formed to carry out a basic proposal.

Mr. Balfour reviewed the effects of the successive land acts as tending to extend the holdings of farmers and peasants. He held that the Ashbourne act of 1885 better assisted to the purchase of land than the act of 1891. The present measure would carry out the best principles of the Ashbourne act, would adopt several of the features of Mr. Morley's bill of 1895, and would add a series of provisions amending the procedure of previous acts and facilitate a working purchase system. Regarding arrears, the bill proposed that a tenant who was able, could in all cases redeem his holding by the payment of two years' arrears, leaving the landlord to recover arrears beyond this period by ordinary procedure. The bill did not abolish the landlord's right of pre-emption.

Regarding compensation for improvements, the bill provided that after an allowance had been made to a tenant for improvements, the court could award a further compensation if it decided that the tenant had not received equitable compensation.

The scheme for fixing the judicial rents proposed a term of 30 years' duration, but this would be variable every five years on the application of either landlord or tenant. In respect to the purchase of land, Mr. Balfour said that whereas the present time for the repayment of the sum advanced for purchase extended over 49 years in continuous payments at four per cent. interest, the present bill proposed to extend the period to 70 years.

In conclusion Mr. Balfour said that the bill might not be all the nationalists wanted, but he held that it would be fair and beneficial to both landlord and tenant.

Rt. Hon. John Morley, chief secretary for Ireland in the last liberal government, said he was pleased with parts of the bill, chiefly those that had been adopted from the liberal bill.

The bill then passed its first reading. The second reading was fixed for April 27.

UNIQUE GAME

At Rockford, Ill., Stopped by the Rain—Harry Wright Day.

ROCKFORD, Ill., April 14.—Rain stopped the most unique game in history of baseball Monday. Veterans of the 60's met in a contest according to the old rules that gave the pitcher nine balls, made foul on bound out, and caused the runner to be called out if he overran first base.

The umpire of the game was H. H. Walde, 75 years of age, known as the "Father of Forest City's," which team was organized here in 1895 and played until 1875, being one of the most famous teams in the country. The game Monday was in honor of Harry Wright, the proceeds going to the erection of a monument to him in Philadelphia. It was made a reunion of players of the old Forest City team, and a number of players who had been prominent on other teams volunteered their services. One team was made up of A. G. Spalding, George E. King, Frank Trumbull, Al Barker, M. L. Wheeler, R. C. Buckman, W. L. Lighthart, B. Osborne, and Fred Cone. The other club consisted of "Cherokee" Fisher, M. Larue, Harry Starr, W. S. Stearns, Dan O'Leary, E. C. Dunn, George Wright, C. T. Page and M. H. Golden.

Spalding and King, Fisher and Larue formed the batteries. George Wright, brother of Harry Wright, played shortstop for his team. The Forest City's blanketed their opponents and in their half batted out four runs, when a heavy rainstorm stopped the game. The attendance was 2,500. Threatening weather kept thousands away from surrounding towns and Chicago.

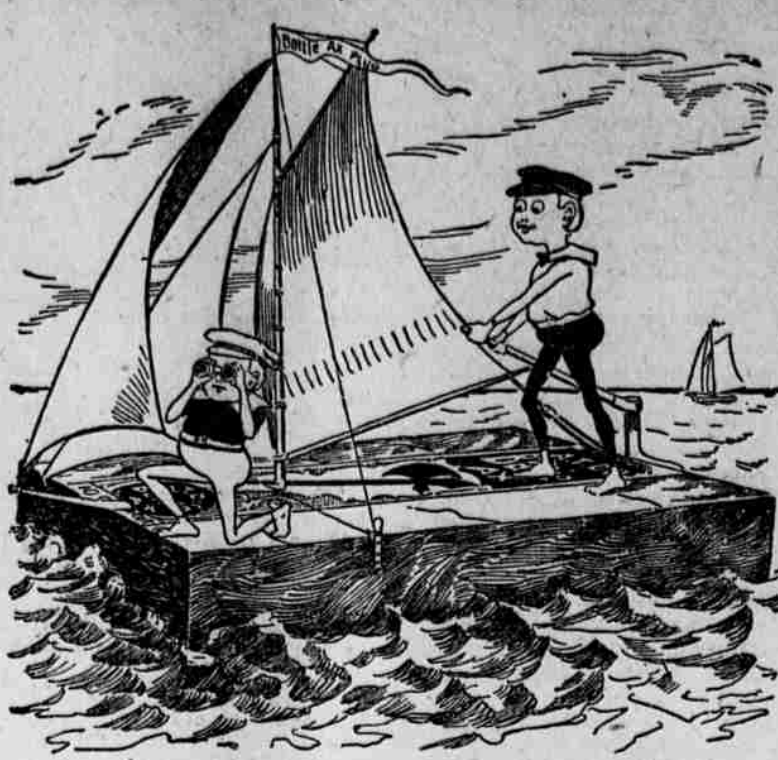

Jefferson's Birthday in Philadelphia. BROOKLYN, N. Y., April 14.—Two hundred Brooklyn democrats celebrated Jefferson's birthday Monday at the Young Men's Democratic club, at the Hotel St. George. The chief speaker was ex-Congressman Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, O., who responded to the toast "Democratic duty in 1896."

But Little Business Transacted. WASHINGTON, April 14.—Discussion of the bill to regulate the marriages in the District of Columbia occupied the greater part of the session in the house Monday, and no quorum appearing on the vote ordering the previous question, the house at 4:30 adjourned until Tuesday.

Senator Morrill's Birthday. WASHINGTON, April 14.—Senator Justin S. Morrill, of Vermont, the venerable father of the upper house, was 86 years old Monday, and Monday night he gave a reception to political and personal friends to celebrate the occasion.

Pay for Use of a Church During the War. WASHINGTON, April 14.—The senate bill to pay $2,880 to the St. Joseph's Catholic church at Martinsburg, W. Va., for use of the property during the civil war, was taken from the calendar Monday and passed.

German Engineer and Archeologist Dead. BERLIN, April 14.—Charles Humann, a well known German engineer and archeologist, died Monday night at Augsburg. He was born January 4, 1839.
